Today's People Making A Commitment for a Future Generation

Recognizing that I/we have been provided with many blessings throughout my/our life and that a final gift can make a meaningful difference in Christ's work at St. John's for generations to come, I/we have elected to make a provision in our estate plan to include St. John's Lutheran Church, Charleston, South Carolina. This gift is to be placed in the St. John's Endowment Fund, thereby providing for the congregation's ability to provide life changing and transforming ministry to future generations of Christians who shall gather here to offer their praise and worship to Jesus Christ and serve others as they are called by Christ and led by the Holy Spirit.
